The Second Edition

Staying Connected.....

As we bring you the second edition of our Quarterly Newsletter, we are delighted to continue the journey we began just a few months ago — a journey of connection, collaboration, and celebration.

While this quarter may not have major milestones to report, it has given us wonderful moments to come together and celebrate as a community. Most notably, we had the pleasure of celebrating the birthday of our Managing Partner (Head of the Firm) — a special occasion that reminded us of the people who inspire and lead us every day.

Together, we continue to nurture the bonds that make us one team across Mumbai, Kolkata, Bangalore, and Delhi. Here's to cherishing these moments and looking forward to another quarter of collaboration, connection, and shared success!
